2006 CLTA Election Results – A Message from the Nominating Committee

Dear Members,

Thank you very much for sending in your ballots for the 2006 CLTA election. The results of the election are as follows. Audrey Li was elected Vice President, and Madeline Spring, Chengzhi Chu, Xiaohong Wen, and Qinghai Chen were elected to the CLTA Board of Directors.

The Committee would like to thank Jerry Packard, Meng Yeh, Carol Chen-Lin, Kun-Shan (Carolyn) Lee, and Qun Ao for agreeing to run for the election.

All the best to Audrey and the newly-elected Directors as they begin their new tasks in November. (Per Articles IV and V of the CLTA Bylaws, a new term of office for members of the CLTA Board of Directors and elected officers begins in the year of the election upon the adjournment of the Annual Meeting of the Association in November.)

Sincerely,

Yea-Fen Chen, Yulan Lin and Claudia Ross

Software Donation from Master Wan Ko Yee International Culture Institute (MWKYICI)

August 24, 2006

Dear Sir/Madam:

Please allow me to inform you of a special project of “Aiding the Teaching and Learning of Chinese Language and Culture in United States”. This project is sponsored by Master Wan Ko Yee International Cultural Institute (MWKYICI) located in Los Angeles.

MWKYICI is a non-profit organization and its mission is to promote internationally renowned

Master Wan Ko Yee’s unprecedented achievements in the areas of Chinese culture and education, Chinese paintings and calligraphy, science, philosophy, medicine, music, Buddhism studies, etc. An example of many honors he has received is the first fellowship awarded by the Royal Academy Schools of UK in more than two hundred years.

The project has received funding from William Prusoff Foundation. Dr. Prusoff, a prominent faculty in pharmacology at Yale University, has been a generous supporter for many cultural, social and medical projects.

MWKYICI has authorized TwinBridge Software Corporation (TwinBridge) to execute this project by providing multimedia tools, e-books, and software to selected educational institutions that have been offering the programs for the teaching and learning of Chinese language and culture in United States. TwinBridge has been developing Asian language software in U.S. for the past sixteen years. These free copies are full version software and will be supported by their customer service.

You are cordially invited to take advantage of this project. By accepting this offer, please fill out the enclosed Acceptance form and fax us back regarding your request for receiving any donated items. Please include shipping address, contact name and phone number in your reply. Quantity limited with first come first serve. Please feel free to contact me for general donation information. For detailed information regarding the donated items, please contact Mr. Henry Yu, Director of TwinBridge, at (323) 263-3926, Ext. 268 or via E-mail at henry@twinbridge.com

Best regards,

Chen-Hung (Michael) Lin, Ph.D.
