Reading & Writing Listening & Speaking

By De-an Wu Swihart By De-an Wu Swihart, Irene Liu, and Judy Z. Mu

"The author has chosen the most needed communicative abilities and situations most likely encountered in China ... the textbook is so skillfully and practically structured that students are able to learn basic Chinese language skills with flexibility."

—Journal of the Chinese Language Teachers Association

With two separate, but related components—"Listening & Speaking" and "Reading & Writing"—Success with Chinese offers students the flexibility to learn the different skills at their own pace. Through experiences such as shopping for food, seeing a doctor, getting a haircut, or planning a trip, learners are immediately immersed in the language of daily activities. Success with Chinese Level 2 trains students to the intermediate level of ACTFL's Oral Proficiency Interview.
