UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN, ANN ARBOR

Rank: Lecturer in Chinese

The Department of Asian Languages and Cultures at the University of Michigan invites applications for a renewable one-year Lecturer position in Chinese language starting September 1, 2007. Applicants should have an MA in a relevant field, native or near-native competence in oral/written Chinese and English, at least two years of experience in teaching Chinese as a second or foreign language at the college/university level, knowledge of US educational system, and familiarity with language teaching methodologies as well as computer-assisted language instruction. Expertise and experience in curriculum and program development are preferred. Responsibilities include 10-12 instructional hours a week at any assigned levels and active involvement in teamwork and program affairs. A complete dossier includes a letter of application explaining your qualifications and teaching philosophy, a current CV, evidence of teaching excellence, and three letters of recommendation. A teaching demo videotape/DVD and samples of materials development are strongly recommended. Please have all your application documents sent to ALC Chinese Search Committee, University of Michigan, Suite 6111, 202 S. Thayer Street, Ann Arbor, MI 48104-1608. Review of applications will start on November 6 and continue until the position is filled. Preliminary interviews will be held at the ACTFL conference in Nashville, TN on November 17 and 18. The University of Michigan is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. Terms and conditions for this position are subject to the provisions of a Collective Bargaining Agreement between the University of Michigan and the Lecturers' Employee Organization.
