

POSITIONS

(Please check with the hiring institutions before you apply and see if the positions are still open.)

BRANDEIS UNIVERSITY

The Department of German, Russian, and Asian Languages and Literature at Brandeis University is seeking applications for a full-time, non-tenure-track position as a Chinese language instructor. Responsibilities include teaching all levels of language courses and possibly some culture courses (three courses per semester). This position will be for one year with an expectation that it will be renewed based on performance and need. Qualifications include M.A. or the equivalent in Chinese linguistics, literature or other relevant discipline and training in foreign language pedagogy. Native or near-native fluency in Chinese and English required. Please send letter of application, curriculum vitae, samples of student evaluations, and names of three references to: Linda Boothroyd, departmental administrator, the Department of German, Russian, and Asian Languages and Literature at Brandeis University, 415 South Street, MS 024, Waltham, MA 02454. Review of applications will begin on May 7, 2007, and continue until the position is filled. For more information please call Dr. Qun Ao, Director of the Chinese Language at 781-736-2961. Brandeis is an equal opportunity employer committed to building a culturally diverse intellectual community and welcomes applications from women and minorities.

SUFFOLK COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Instructor/Assistant Professor of Chinese (Mandarin)

The Michael J. Grant Campus of Suffolk County Community College, located in Brentwood, Long Island, New York, seeks experienced Chinese language instructor for a full-time tenure track appointment beginning September 2007. Rank will be determined by qualifications and teaching experience. Masters degree in Chinese, Applied Linguistics or a related field required; doctorate preferred. Initial responsibilities will include course and curriculum development as well as participation in the development of the Institute for the Study of Critical Languages and Cultures. Subsequently, the successful candidate will be expected to teach two courses each semester in elementary and/or intermediate Chinese. Familiarity with a broad range of instructional materials and methodologies, including multimedia and computer Assisted Language Learning (CALL) resources is desirable. Native or near native competency in Mandarin Chinese and excellent command of English are required. The exact salary will be determined by prior teaching experience and placement on the salary scale negotiated by the Faculty Association of SCCC. Applicants may apply online to Human Resources at www.sunysuffolk.edu (SCCC Reference 07-40). SCCC is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer and educator.

THE UNITED STATES MILITARY ACADEMY

ASSISTANT/ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF CHINESE. Candidates for this renewable appointment will be evaluated according to the following qualifications: advanced degree (Ph.D. preferred) in Chinese literature or linguistics; native or near-native fluency in Chinese and English; promise or evidence of excellence in teaching at the college level; scholarship or scholarly potential; a firm commitment to high quality undergraduate education; and the ability to work harmoniously with colleagues. Applicants with expertise in second-language acquisition; informational technology, and assessment are especially encouraged to apply. To