Concordia Language Villages Two Programs for World Language Educators

Teacher Seminars
June 22 - July 2, 2008
Second Language Methodologies for Teachers

Join language teachers from across the United States for a ten-day summer graduate course at the Villages. Upon successful completion of the course, four semester hours of graduate credit are earned through Concordia College, Moorhead, Minnesota. Learn about and discuss current practices and issues related to second language acquisition.

The course is open to all K-12 second language educators including ESL educators, college educators with an interest in K-12 second language methodologies, and pre-service education majors.

Master of Education in World Language Instruction Combine On-site With Online Learning

The Master of Education Program is designed for the working teacher: Summer One, July 5 - 29, takes place at Concordia Language Villages. Two online courses during the academic year bridge to Summer Two, July 5 - 28, at the Villages. The program capstone is a thesis and online seminar during the fall semester of 2009. The total program includes 34 semester hours of instruction.
