Cheng & Tsui's best-loved Chinese textbook series is new, revised, and better than ever! Integrated Chinese is already the leading introductory Chinese textbook at colleges and universities around the world. The third edition has been significantly updated to meet the needs of today's students with a full-color design, more communicative activities, up-to-date vocabulary, expanded cultural notes, an exciting new storyline linking the dialogues and readings, more review sections, and an improved structure that allows for more flexible pacing.

Throughout the series, Integrated Chinese builds on the three modes of communication—interpretive, interpersonal, and presentational—and ACTFL's "Five Cs" — Communication, Culture, Connections, Comparisons, and Communities—to build proficiency in using the Chinese language in a variety of real-life situations. With its emphasis on practicing a broad range of written and verbal communication skills and building cultural understanding, Integrated Chinese is ideal for students who want a comprehensive grounding in the Chinese language. Traditional and simplified character versions are available. Visit www.cheng-tsu.com today to view ISBN and pricing information, Cheng & Tsui, the company known for bringing Asia to the world, now brings the world of Asian-language teachers and students together in one convenient place—PeerSource! A new, free online community, PeerSource is a valuable hub for anyone interested in Asian languages and cultures. An all-in-one reference center, professional and social networking community, and classroom resource guide, PeerSource provides access to a vibrant, worldwide community of passionate and dedicated educators, students, administrators, parents, authors, and leaders in the field.

Members of PeerSource can join or create groups focused on nearly any topic—textbook series, levels of study, types of learners, and classroom activities, to name a few. As members of a group, users can share resources and discuss relevant topics with likeminded colleagues, subscribe to RSS feeds, and create or contribute to wikis.

PeerSource is a place for users to share their creativity and enthusiasm for teaching and learning Asian languages. Shared resources can include lesson plans, craft projects, play scripts, activities, best practices, or photo galleries—anything you can dream up! Resources can be made accessible to all members, or posted as password-protected material only viewable by other teachers. PeerSource is also a valuable compendium of companion resources direct from the publisher, including audio downloads, sample lessons, e-flashcards, and more.

We believe that bringing people together is good for them, good for us, and good for education. We are pleased to provide a convenient, exciting place for you to share your passion for learning and teaching! Please join us today at <http://my.cheng-tsu.com>.
